DSS Assess

Dr. Sarah Edwards

Melody Munson-McGee

May 19, 2022

Welcome

Introductions

Community standards

Assessment & Evaluation in Student Success

How should students benefit from participating in our programs and services?

How do we know if we are successful?

Our students change: Marist lists

Class of 2023, Fall 2019 incoming

- 9/11: Shoe check at the airport, TSA screenings, If you see something…

- Grew up with smart pens, smart watches, cameras with phones inside. iPods make them nostalgic.

- Half their generation are POC; lifetime includes Black president, Sec'y of State (2), BLM

- No hangups about sexual orientation: it is just a characteristic

- Face recognition, big data, rented textbooks, graphic novels, home defibrillators…

Class of 2025, Fall 2021 incoming

- Poetry renaissance

- Awareness of veterans

- Adapting to virtual

- Public health crisis

- Redefining arts – culture – commerce

- Demanding justice, sustainability in fashion

- Decriminalizing drugs

- Social changes: death penalty, domestic terrorism, challenges to democracy

Purpose: Assessment & Evaluations

Continuous Improvement

Accountability
- To students for effectiveness
- To ourselves that we are fulfilling our commitment to students with integrity and sincere commitment to their education
- To administration for investment; from state, from NMSU
- To other stakeholders: alumni, legislators, community, families

Leadership Development

Today…

Assessment foundations
- Learning outcomes, reflection, resources

Lunch

Assessment, Accountability, Accreditation

Tools
- Inventory: Curriculum map and what are we already doing?
- Reporting, needs, conclude with an assessment

Thank you

- "Assessment is any effort to gather, analyze, and interpret evidence which describes institutional, departmental, divisional, or agency effectiveness."
  – Upcraft & Schuh, 1996, p. 18)

- Differences between Assessment, Evaluation, and Research